

GIANT ELECTRIC PEA
the first independent label for progressive rock

PRESS RELEASE

Special Providence sign to GEP New album 'Essence of Change' out 30th March

The new album by Hungarian band Special Providence will be released by GEP on 30th March. 'Essence of Change' is 'an intriguing mix of prog, jazz-rock and metal', a perfect blend of modern metal technique, cool jazz grooves and great prog melodies.

'Essence of Change' is available to order now from the GEP store (www.gep.co.uk/store) at a special 'pre-order' price of £8.

Check out the video for 'Northern Lights': <http://y2u.be/SjJawjL4B8U> and the trailer for the new album: <http://youtu.be/eSCLooIHNSM>.

Special Providence will play a series of gigs to promote the new album, culminating in an appearance at this years 'Night of the Prog' festival at Lorelei:

- 13 March: Dürer Kert / Budapest (HU)
- 31 March: TBA / Bratislava (SK)
- 1 April: Parnik / Ostrava (CZ)
- 2 April: Slowone / Brno (CZ)
- 3 April: Akropolis / Praha (CZ)
- 4 April: Binger Bühne / Bingen am Rhein (DE)
- 5 April: Boerderij, Progdreams Festival - Zoetermeer (NL)
- 19 July: Night of the Prog Festival / Loreley (DE)

Special Providence are:

- Adam Markó – drums
- Attila Fehervári - bass
- Márton Kertész – guitar
- Zsolt Kaltenecker – keyboards